Minor in East Asian Studies

Admission to the minor shall be declared no later than the first semester of the graduating year. Students should prepare a statement of objectives to attach to the application.

A minor in East Asian Studies may be achieved by meeting these requirements:

1. Complete five courses with a minimum of 18 credits. One of the East Asian Intro Courses (ASIAN 2211, ASIAN 2212, or ASIAN 2218) is required.
2. Students normally take courses in East Asian Studies (China, Japan, Korea) bearing subject heading ASIAN or its cross-listings. Other courses with relevant East Asian content may also count, pending approval by the Department of Asian Studies. Typically, non-language courses are selected at the 2000-level or above.
3. The following courses may also count towards the minor: two courses (of at least three-credits each) in an East Asian language at the 1000-level or above and East Asian graduate courses. Language study is strongly encouraged; credits awarded for language cannot exceed six credits.
4. Up to 8 credits may be awarded for Office of Global Learning-approved study abroad in East Asia, in consultation with the DUS. Such courses may include summer study.
5. A minimum grade of B- must be received for all courses counted towards the minor. S/U courses are ineligible.

Those enrolled in the East Asian Studies Minor are considered members of the East Asia Program and are encouraged to participate in all program activities.

The first step in applying for the EA Studies Minor is to consult with at least one of the eligible advising faculty listed at: <https://asianstudies.cornell.edu/advisors-undergraduate-minor-east-asian-studies>. To apply, select an advisor from this list. Next, schedule an appointment with the Director of Undergraduate Studies, (asianstudiesdus@cornell.edu). Bring the completed application form to this appointment along with a copy of your current Cornell transcript. Informal transcripts are accepted.

Once approved, return this form to the Asian Studies Department Office, 350 Rockefeller Hall.
